

Ken Mischel

With more than 35 years' experience in the bowling industry, Ken serves buyers and sellers in the Western United States. His experience includes:

- Owner Mischel & Company, Western United States affiliate of The Hansell Group. Worked in the family bowling business then purchased, operated, renovated and sold several bowling centers and motels in Colorado and New Mexico. Directed all phases of the operation of these properties.
- Consulting, valuations and sales projects for over 150 individual bowling proprietors, multi-unit operators and investors throughout the Western United States.
- Management, through foreclosure proceedings and receivership for troubled centers.
- Retained by financial institutions in 24 states for brokerage, valuations and consulting.
- Qualified as an Expert Witness on a variety of bowling industry financial and operational matters and valuations.
- Past President of the CSBPA (2 Terms).
- National Director of the BPAA (3 Terms).
- Bowling Commissioner of the Colorado State Games (2 Terms).